CANDID CONVERSATIONS

JUNE

Film Discussion: "Race: The Difference Between Us"

Where did the idea of race come from? In part 1 of the acclaimed PBS documentary series, "Race: The Power of an Illusion," learn more about how we think about race. A facilitated discussion will follow the film.

Monday, June 12, 6:00-7:30 pm
Rockwell Branch Library

Book Discussion: Between the World & Me

Ta-Nehisi Coates's book is a look at America through the lens of a black man raised in a nation that has devalued people of color. Registration is required and begins May 19; call 688-9580 or register online.

Friday, June 16, 7:00-8:00 pm
Angelou Branch Library

Outdoor Film on the Underground Railroad

In honor of Wichita's Juneteenth Celebration, view the historical documentary "Dawn of Day: The Underground Railroad in Kansas." The evening begins with a chat with the filmmaker; film begins at 9:00 pm.

Friday, June 23, 8:30-10:00 pm
WSU Campus Amphitheater

JULY & AUGUST

Book discussions will continue, including on The New Jim Crow by Michelle Alexander and Writings on the Wall by Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. We will also have film discussions on parts 2 and 3 of the PBS series "Race: The Power of an Illusion."

CANDID CONVERSATIONS is a collaboration with the Wichita Public Library, the Wichita Police Department, Wichita Public Schools, WSU Office of Diversity and Inclusion, WSU School of Community Affairs, NAACP Youth Council, Urban League of Kansas, League of Women Voters-Wichita Metro, ARISE, Kansas Appleseed, Community Operation Recovery Empowerment, KMUW, and Real Men, Real Heroes.

This program made possible by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Kansas Humanities Council.
